Generation No. 1

1. Isaac (Ike)<sup>1</sup> Russom was born Abt. 1802 in Guilford Co., NC, and died 1853 in McNairy Co. TN. He married (1) Mary/Polly McKeever 15 Mar 1825 in Guilford Co., NC<sup>1</sup>, daughter of Timothy McKeever and Elizabeth. She was born 29 Aug 1798 in NC, and died 11 Jun 1845 in Guilford Co. NC. He married (2) Hannah Monnett 23 Oct 1845 in Guilford Co. NC, daughter of Peter Monnett and Charlotte Fields. She was born 11 Nov 1821 in Guilford Co. NC, and died 24 Mar 1878 in McNairy Co., TN.

Notes for Isaac (Ike) Russom:

1810 Guilford Co., NC Census: Vincent Russom; 1 m. 0-10 (Isaac is 8); 4 m. 10-16; 2 m. 45 & over; 3 f. 0-10; 1 f. 26-45; 1 f. 45 & over.

1820 Guilford County, NC Census; Vincent 55) 1 m. 45 & older; 3 m. 0-10; 1 f. 45 & older (Rachel 50);

Next: Azel Russom 1 m. 16-26 (Isaac 18) ; 1 m. 26-45; 3 f. 0-10; 1 f. 16-26

1830 Russom in Guilford County, NC; Azel 30-40; Azel 30-40; Isaac 20-30 (28); Jesse 20-30

1 m. 16-26; 1 m. 26-45; 3 f. 0-10; 1 f. 16-26

1840 Russom in Guilford Co., NC: Isaac 30-40 (38); Azel 40-50; Jane 20-30 or 50-60; Vincent 20-30

1850 Russom in Guilford Co., NC: Isaac 48 & Hannah 28; Vincent P. Russom 31 & Margaret 37;

1850 Russom in McNairy, TN; Abner 37 & Polly 36 NC; Azel 67 NC & Rachel 40 NC;

In about 1847/48 three Russom families came to McNairy Co. TN. Family history says that the three men were brothers but it has not been proven that Isaac was the brother of the other two. (One was Azel & another Abner) Note from RaNelle: Isaac was still in Guilford NC in 1850 census so he did not come to McNairy Co., TN at the same time as Azel & Abner. Azel was old enough to be the father of Abner; See 1850 census of McNairy above.

(Note re. first wife of Isaac Russom)

Mary/Polly McKeever's father ran a Public House in Guilford (tavern). After her brother & father's deaths Polly became her mother's sole heir. In 1834 Elizabeth McKeever (mother of Mary/Polly) assigned all her real and personal property to Isaac Russom with the agreement that he would care for her in a decent and plentiful manner and support her slave woman, Sharlett & Sharlett's children. So Isaac ended up with the entire McKeever estate!

(Possibly Isaac's parents were Vincent & Rachel Russom but this has not been proven. Isaac was the executor of Vincent's will which lists other children but not him. This Vincent b. 1765 in Guilford Co., NC or MD; died 1828 in Guilford Co., NC. married Rachel Sullivan b. 1770 in Dorchester, Md. Children were: James b. 1780-86; Mary "Polly" b. 1784 Guilford Co., NC; Azel b. abt. 1783; Sarah b. 1802; Margaret b. 1807; Jesse b. 1809; Abner b. 1812 in Guilford Co., NC.

Isaac came to McNairy County, TN in the late 1840's according to Patsy Russom Templeton.

Note from RaNelle: That is not correct as he was still in Guilford Co., NC per 1850 census.

Possibly the father of Isaac is John Russom shown in the 1800 census of Caroline County, MD. Husband and wife were ages 20-30 with no children. Isaac was born in 1802. Isaac named his first son John.

FAMILY NAME HISTORY
RUSSOM

(According to The Historical Research Center)

The English surname Russom is of patronymic origin. Patronymic surnames are those names which derive their origin from the personal name of the father of the initial bearer. In this instance, the surname Russom is derived from the personal name Russ/Ross. Thus, the name Russom literally signifies "the son of Ross" and it was used as an additional name in order to distinguish the bearer from those who possessed the same personal name. Ross is a pet or diminutive form of name derived from the Germanic compound "Hrod" which simply means "fame." It appears in many medieval German records as "Rozzo."

During the medieval period, names were essential to a person to describe his occupation, his father's name, his place of residence, or some other personal characteristic, which would be passed down the line of generations to his children and the name Russom therefore would become a part of hereditary. However, the spelling of such surnames varied according to the literacy of the clerk who inscribed them on documents and over succeeding generations a name may have been altered out of all recognition. Thus, the name Russom developed from the original Rozzossone or Rosessone.

The surname Russom was recorded in English documents during the fourteenth century. One Peter Russessone was a resident of Huntingdonshire in 1308 and one Hugh Rosesone was registered in Somerset in 1342. Also, there was one John Rossissone who lived in Suffolk during the year of 1365. Variants of the surname "Russom" include Russon, Rozzonssone, and Rosessone.

According to Lance Russom of Alameda, CA - 4/29/96

Three brothers came from a small town of Russom in Holland to New Amsterdam. The brothers split up and one went to Virginia, one went west to Montana, and one went (elsewhere in the south?). Lance Russom (different spelling) is from the branch in Virginia. He's trying to locate the branch in Montana or wherever that brother went.

New Amsterdam - Settlement established in 1624 by the Dutch. Renamed New York by British in 1664.

From Civil War Records shown on outside of Company Muster Roll of John M. Russom:

Newsom's Regiment, Tennessee Cavalry (18th Cav); This regiment was organized about May 11, 1864, with six companies of Tennessee Cavalry, which appear to have formerly served in Newsom's Regiment Tennessee Cavalry (an organization which was formed about July, 1863, within the Federal lines and disbanded some time prior to the formation of the 18th Regiment Tennessee Cavalry) and the four Tennessee companies of J. E. Forrest's Regiment Alabama Cavalry.

The A. & I-G.O. officially designated this command the 18th Regiment Tennessee Cavalry, but it was known in the field as the 19th and as Newsom's Regiment Tennessee Cavalry.

It was consolidated about March, 1865, with the 20th (Russell's) Regiment Tennessee Cavalry and the consolidated regiment was paroled at Gainesville, Alabama, in May, 1865, as the 19th and 20th Regiment Tennessee Cavalry.

Byrn 12 Sep 1866 in Lauderdale, TN, daughter of John Byrn and Emily Ferguson. She was born Abt. 1849 in TN, and died 1893 in Lauderdale County, TN.

Notes for Henry Clay Russom:

Fought for Confederacy during Civil War. After war he returned to McNairy Co. only to be run out of town by Fielding Hurst & his gang. Whereabouts unknown.

(This is believed to be because he was a confederate)

Note: During the Civil War Fielding Hurst, a staunch Unionist was commissioned as a Colonel. This area being predominately Confederate. Col. Hurst was not too well liked to say the least. He recruited the 6th Tenn. Calv. This area is still known as the "Hurst Nation".

From Deb Yates (dlyates@amexol.net) re. name of Henry Clay Russom;
Marriage record of a Henry C. Russom and Sarah J. Byrn in Lauderdale, TN;
Her family records show Russom's name as John Russom: The name John comes from the Wm. Harvey Johnston book in which credit was given to William David Lapsley Moore for furnishing family history.

From Jeri Reed:

This was what Patsye Russom Templeton thought, that Henry Clay was forced to change his name, although she didn't know what he changed it to. She also thinks he moved to Mississippi, but isn't sure. He disappeared after being run out by Fielding Hurst, and no one in the family seemed to know what happened to him. I don't know in what year this was, but seemed to be shortly after the war (Civil War).

RaNelle Parker has copy of Lauderdale County, TN, Marriage Records, Book 1838-1865, Page 262, Roll 18 from TN State Library and Archives which shows Henry C. Russom marriage to Sarah J. Hannah Russom 11 TN TN TN
Cayetta Russom 8 TN TN TN

David Russom 4 TN TN TN

I believe this is the widow of Henry C. Russom along with his children; That would make his death prior to 1880 but not before 1875

Debbie Lunsford Yates (dlyates@amexol.net) furnished the Descendants of John Russom who married Sarah Jane Byrn: According to marriage records this John is really Henry Clay Russom;

Debbie also sent two of her cousins, Henry Lunsford (lunsfrd2@gte.net) and Georgia Moore (gmm@rosenet.net); They are both connected through the Moore lines

Debbie also said that Sarah Jane & John Russom had children, Alice Emily Russom and David Wesley Russom; The others I have included were from the above 1880 census. Possibly Cayetta and Alice Emily are one and the same.

5. Zachery Taylor<sup>2</sup> Russom (Isaac (Ike)<sup>1</sup>) was born 14 Nov 1848 in McNairy Co., TN, and died 08 Jan 1911 in Prairie County, Arkansas. He married Allis Mary Crawford 12 Nov 1868 in Hardeman, TN, daughter of Father Crawford and Mother. She was born 29 Dec 1847 in TN, and died 23 Jan 1937 in Prairie County, Arkansas.

Notes for Zachery Taylor Russom:

The 1850 census of Guilford, NC shows that Zachary age 1 was born in McNairy, TN but they are on the 1850 census of Guilford NC so must have moved back after he was born.

Data on Zachery Taylor Russom and descendants was furnished to me by Stefanie Payne.

Stefanie says: I put my tree together using 4 typed pages that my great-aunt (Pauline Russom) put together years ago.

He & Alice had 9 children. They moved to Prairie Co. AR

From Prairie County, Arkansas site coordinator:

1992 addresses that may be able to provide date for me:

Patsy Templeton, 132 Warren, Selmer, TN 38375

Harold Cox, Route 1, Box 64-A, Bethel Springs, TN 38315 PH: 901-645-3023

Stefanie Payne says:

My grandmother told me that my great aunt Pauline went around collecting all the information years ago and she typed it up, made copies of it & then gave copies out to everyone in the family.

Stefanie lives in Memphis, TN; She has some family still living in Memphis and some also live in Olive Branch, MS; As far as she can remember, her grandmother & all her siblings were born in Arkansas. She thinks there was a cemetery in Forest City, AR with quite a few Russoms there. One of her grandmother's sisters lives in Owensboro, Kentucky & she has some cousins that live in Mobile, AL. One cousin drives stock cars (Rick Hood) & he lives in Phoenix, Arizona. Another one is an actor (Leon Russom, Jr.) so she assumes he lives in CA. She showed her grandmother the information I sent but she didn't recognize any of the names. She thinks Pauline may have been in contact with some of them but she is not sure.

Winnie Russom Nichols McCall remembers enjoying going to her Papa's Aunt Jane & Uncle Hugh's house. Aunt Jane made the best peach cobbler ever. #### Generation No. 4

Notes for John Lafayette Russom:

John & Lela grew up together in Whitesboro, Texas. They knew each other all their lives. Married there and four of their children were born there. They farmed and raised cotton, maze, corn. They had a peach orchard and John would take them to Sherman in the wagon where he peddled them door to door. They also raised peanuts for their own use. Winnie remembers that they also had a huge apple tree and also a mulberry tree in the front yard. Lela canned jar after jar of fruit & vegetables that they raised, i.e. huge tomatoes. They sold their farm to Hugh Russom and moved to Sherman, Grayson County, Texas where they lived two years. There John raised wheat. When the harvesters came they would all have to help cook to feed the crews. Irene was born there in 1919; In 1921 they moved to Memphis, Hall County, Texas by train where they lived a total of seven years, first in town and then on the Dial Ranch where they farmed. Finis was born there. They then moved to Clarendon, Texas in 1928; they left Clarendon for a short while and moved to Natalia, Texas as did Finis who was young and still at home, Raymond & Elise along with Jerry (Pat was born in Natalia in 1940) and Winnie & Ralph along with Larry & RaNelle. John & Lela moved back to Clarendon & later moved to California as did Raymond & Elsie. John & Lela lived in Long Beach, CA until their deaths. While living in Natalia, Texas, John & his son Raymond worked as farm laborers. Ralph ran a service station, Elsie and Winnie worked in a canning factory and Grandma Lela tended the grandchildren. Per graduation certificate in possession of Steve & Brian Russom, their Dad, Finis Paul, attended school in Natalia from where he graduated.

From Pat Cincotta:

I loved to watch Kay's reaction to some things at "the Russoms." as she called Grandma's house. Grandpa acted the same around everyone - and would pinch her just like all the rest of us. My used to get so made at him - he would pinch her right behind a knee and it hurt! He would just pick up a tiny bit of flesh and squeeze hard. I think he must have pinched everyone that came there at least once. Pat's good friend, Ester, who was from Hungary and knew little English at the time, used to visit with them there - and he always demanded to know if she was over there to eat again. "Are you over here again?" he'd say. "Leeler, she's here to eat again!" He was a riot. I've never known anyone like him. And together, they were almost a comedy act. She would gripe and carry on because he ate so many sweet potatoes, but she would cook him about 10 at a time. "Now, John, you're gonna kill yourself eating that many potatoes!" And he used to eat Limburger cheese - gosh, that was powerful stuff. It would stink up the whole house. Smelled like an outdoor toilet.

Leila was the one who spanked the kids when they needed it. She worked hard in the house & taking care of six kids & John worked the farm & did all the outside chores. Winnie remembers one time she went swimming with her friends in a bathing suit and her mother used her shoe to spank her. She was very strict in those days. She wouldn't let her go to dances but she went once or twice on the "sligh."

Winnie says "Mama would "nag" Dad sometimes but if he got mad she would hush in a hurry.'

Notes for MABEL LUCILLE RUSSOM:

>From Pat Russom Cincotta in answer to a question about Mabel:

I can answer your question about Mabel myself - hard to believe, huh? We visited her when I was a kid and she had an extensive collection of ceramic dogs. Made quite an impression on me. She was a very sweet lady. She very patiently told me where she got a lot of them, who gave them to her, etc. She had polio when she was a child and was badly crippled from it, so she couldn't walk or anything. Her legs never grew right because she was so young when she had the disease. We were penpals for awhile after that visit, but as I grew older we lost contact. I should have kept writing to her. I know mail meant a lot to her - because her world was so limited.

Elsie tells of attending church & Raymond sitting behind her "hissing" at her to get her attention. It made her so mad she ignored him. "All those people saw him acting like an idiot," she says. He also put coal in snowballs & threw them at one of her boy friends to get him to leave.

Raymond never tires of telling stories about his young years in Texas. He & brother, J.L., used to talk a lot on the phone about those years.

Raymond & Elsie's families were neighbors in Clarendon, Texas. Raymond thought Elsie was the most beautiful woman he had even seen, and he still does.

They lived in Clarendon, TX, then for a while in Natalia, Texas, where Pat was born. He worked there as farm laborer & Elsie & Winnie worked in canning factory.

They later moved to California, Long Beach area, in 1942 where they lived and raised their children. Later moved to Arnold, Calif. and then after their son, Jerry died they moved to Centerville, Iowa along with their daughter Pat & her husband.

88. ii. PATRICIA RUSSOM, b. 14 Aug 1940, Natalia, Medina County, Texas.

Notes for Winnie Lorene Russom:

Born in Whitesboro, Texas. Later her family moved to Sherman, Texas area then on to Memphis, Texas where they lived seven years. She attended Memphis, Texas high school 1 semester her senior year and then they moved to Clarendon where she attended 1 semester.

As a small child, if her Mom could not find her, she would always look out into the peanut patch and there was a little head showing above the vines and it would be Winnie sitting there pulling up and eating raw peanuts. She loved peanuts all her life, raw or roasted.

She recalls when they still lived in Memphis on the Dial Ranch she roomed for a time with the Kelley family (they were neighbors before the Russoms family moved from town out to the Dial Ranch) so that she could attend school more easily. (Note from RaNelle: Have not found a Dial Ranch but perhaps the Dial family were farm owners.)

She also recalls a train trip from Memphis to Quanah, Texas with her cousin Lillian, brother Raymond and Cousin Buzz to visit their Aunt Pearl Leslie Boaz. The train stopped in Quanah, Texas, and they had to walk in the dark to a community called "Bug Shuffle" where Aunt Pearl lived. Winnie was about 14-15 years of age at that time. On this trip she received her first gift from a "boy" named Howard Jackson. He had bought a box of candy for his girlfriend but instead gave it to her.

Note from RaNelle: There was a community in Fannin County called "Bug Tussle" and I am wondering if that is possibly what Winnie remembered.

She lived and worked on the farm most of her life until she was in her 40s. Picking and hoeing cotten, raising and canning (& later freezing) fruits and vegetables, raising chickens, calves and pigs and all this in addition to keeping a spotless house, washing & ironing all those starched homemade clothes. There was never a lot of money but always good food on the table. Her husband, Ralph Nichols, was very ill with heart problems so from early marriage she had to do a lot of the hard work to assist him. After they moved to Irving, Texas, in 1950 and he died in 1954 she collected notes & sold houses & lots in Bear Creek area of the city, then later worked in various clerking jobs in Irving until she remarried to Jim McCall and retired.

Winnie laughs and recalls that she must not have been very pretty as once a little playmate hit her and the boy's mother asked him why. The boy answered "cause she's ugly".

Winnie recalls that on Sunday they would all dress up in their Sunday clothes and Dad would hitch a team of mules to the wagon and away they would go to Sunday School & Church in the little one room Church House.

More About Winnie Lorene Russom:

Burial: 22 Mar 2002, Crown Hill Cemetery in Dallas, Texas

Hobby: Loved to embroidery, having been taught by her Aunt Pearl Leslie Boaz and at the age of almost 91 is still doing pillow cases; First love was flower in her yard and did all her own yard work until well into her 80's.

Religion: Methodist and then Baptist; Attended the Friendship Methodist Church in Whitesborn as a child.

Notes for Ralph Winston Nichols:

Courtney, Oklahoma (formerly Watkins) was also called Courtney Flats. It is located in the SW corner of Love County on Hwy 32. According to "Oklahoma Place Names" by George Shirk, the post office at Courtney was established in 1886 and closed in 1957. It was "named for H. D. Courtney, prominent early-day resident."

Farmed in Martin Community outside Clarendon then moved to Natalia, Texas, where he ran a service station & Winnie worked in canning factory. That only lasted 7 months. After moving back to Clarendon from Natalia, he made living by driving his own truck and hauling merchandise for people. Later leased trucks to WPA. Later sold monuments all over Panhandle area before moving to Irving, Texas in 1950. Invested in real estate after moving to Irving.

When they moved back to Clarendon from Natalia, rented part of Elizabeth Nichols' home which they later purchased from Mayme Nichols Roy.

Winnie & Ralph would on occasion go to the Opry House with Ruel & Marie to a dance. In fact they went to one when she was pregnant with RaNelle. Her mom, Lela, would not keep Larry because they were going to a dance and she did not believe in dancing, so Maudie Nichols kept him.

Finis told me that there was nothing for him to do in Natalia, TX after his graduation except work in the cannery, so he joined the Navy. He left a couple of months before Pat was there which would have been about June of 1940.

Finis and his first wife, Mary came to Clarendon to visit Ralph & Winnie and kids when they were still in the Navy. What fun we had as they took us to town bowling where we were spoiled with unlimited candy and cokes which was an unheard of treat. One little problem resulted, RaNelle made a pig out of herself and became sick.

From Steve:

"My Dad said that he lived in Long Beach for a little while after WWII and got work at one of the aircraft plants, but didn't like it. Pat has pictures of her standing in the middle of a flock. She told how a coyote got her big tom one day and she cooked it in an old wash tub because the tom was too big for any pot she had.

Pat also remembers that her mother told that when she was about 6 or 7, she pulled the chair out from under her grandmother Russom (Margaret Jane Formby Russom) when Grandma was going to sit down at the table and Grandma fell to the floor. That was the only time her father (Rod) spanked her.

Lives in Whitesboro, Texas. She bought her brothers and sisters share of the homestead when her parents, Zac & Eulalah Russom died. She also owns her grandfather Mott's home not far from her. When driving to Akers Cemetery, there is a road that turns left just before the cemetery. Turn on it and go straight. When the road splits you continue to go straight but slightly to the left. Turn left through a gate that has an H on each side and follow the road to her house.

Good Memories Growing Up:

Riding on mother's cotton sack in the field. I can smell that cotton now.

Riding on the plow horse with Joanne as our next door neighbor, Mr. Strawn, plowed his fields. Joanne was the Strawn's granddaughter whom they raised.

Eating watermelon picked fresh from the fields and cooled in the well house.

The best fried pies in the world that mother would have waiting after school. My favorite was cinnamon, sugar & butter. Peach was a more common as we had a large peach orchard and many canned jars on the smokehouse shelves.

Camping out & fishing at McClellan Lake with Mom & Dad, Larry & Martha, and many times with Reba & Gene Baxter. My job was always to get up and go with Daddy to run the trot line during the night.

Lying in the back seat of the car parked under an apricot tree reading anything I could get my hands on, mainly Larry's comic books.

A trip to a mountain lake with Mom & Dad, Matt & John Nichols (Dad's uncle), Martha & I. They fished and Martha & I were just old enough to flirt with construction boys working nearby.

Driving the car while Larry "sparked" in the back seat. If he got the car he had to take me with him. Little did Daddy know and I guess he thought I was keeping Larry out of trouble.

Spending the night with Patsy Elliott when they had community parties at their house and everyone drank cool aid out of fruit jars.

Spending the night with Mary Lou Barker and smoking her "stashed" cigarettes out in the fields and looking at "True Romance" magazines. She still smokes but it never caught on with me but it was fun since we thought it was forbidden. Sneaking out and making mud pies when we were too old, that one last time, and laughing at ourselves. We can still look at each other and start laughing about nothing.

Spending the night with Maudie and Poppy and sleeping in a room with a big bed. Having a bedtime fruit snack brought upstairs by Maudie, already peeled and sliced or sectioned. What a treat and school lunch the next day always included "red hots" or some special treat we did not have at home. We did not think too highly of the kraut & tomato juice mix that she insisted we drink at times. And then there was the lemon juice and hot water before breakfast phase. Luckily, we loved lemons. Maudie always had chores she wanted to share with us but avoided those as best we could.

Charging candy to daddy's account at the grocery store and then worrying for a month until he picked up the bill and wondering what he would say. He never said anything but we knew better than to abuse that privilege and we still dreaded the day he got the bill.

Standing beside Maudie in my slip while she put the finishing touches on a dress she was making for me so that I could attend a party. I was always at least an hour late, but oh what a pretty dress!

A whole month spent in California with our Russom cousins. How did their parents stand it?

Trips to Dallas on the train with Maudie to visit Bob & Juliette Nichols. We had to wear our Sunday dresses and a hat and had lunch in the dining car.

Saturdays, when we would wash our hair and then go to town and park on Main Street of Clarendon, all afternoon. That was a time for walking up and down the street, looking in the few stores or browsing the aisles of the five and dime with your friends. If we were lucky and had money we would attend the matinee at the Mulkey Theater. We were attired in starched dresses or skirts & blouses as you only wore pants at home or in the fields and never to town. Before going home Daddy would buy us each a pint of ice cream and the Saturday Evening Post to read. We ate that ice cream slowly, each child trying to make theirs last the longest. My favorite was banana-nut.

Dancing at the Teen Canteen which was open twice a week for the older kids to have something to do. Always a sponsor present and we all got to practice our dance steps.

Mike is the youngest of the family. Went to visit Aunt Winnie with his Dad when he was about 12 & remembers going to a museum & seeing big catfish that were netted out of Lake Texoma and having lots of fun.

Aunt Winnie remembered that Mike loved her fried chicken and gravy. When they started on their motor trip back home to California, Winnie fried some chicken for them to take. Mike said "what about the gravy." So, Winnie made a pan of gravy and Mike left her house with a fruit jar full of gravy to eat on the trip home.

Addie Annie Crowsey Russom married William Clay Russom. They had three children. My grandfather, Clay, died of the 1918 influenza, because penicillin had not been discovered. My grandmother never remarried or even dated and she was a young widow. She sold Clay's farm equipment, moved to Sherman, was Baptist, but the nuns at St. Vincent's Catholic Hospital gave Grandma a job in the laundry, gave Mable free room, board, and medical care in the hospital, baby sat my mother, Gladys, and gave her little jobs like dusting the huge stairs. Grandma Addie bought an old house in back of the hospital at 1011 E. Epstein. She always talked highly of my grandfather and said he was enough man to last her a lifetime. I was named after him and would never let anyone call me by my first name, Betty, because I wanted to honor his name.

Their three children were Ethel Lois Russom Pelley (born January 17, 1908, died April 20, 1987 of pneumonia after a broken hip (osteoporosis). Ethel married James Raymond Pelley. Ethel became a Registered Nurse. They never had any children and lived with my grandmother and Mable for years. They finally built a home. Raymond was born April 15, 1902 and died September 22, 1993, and never remarried.

Mable Lucille Russom (born August 8, 1911, died December 9, 1981 of Leukemia. Mable had crippling rheumatoid arthritis when she was 7 years old and was a complete invalid. However, with her very crippled hands she was good at miniature art. She drew all-occasion cards--santas, poinsettias, wreaths, stork and baby, bride and grooms, etc. Then she painted them with water colors. She also drew my own personal paper dolls and clothes. She embroidered, crocheted, collected whatnot dogs, picture post cards and corresponded with pen pals in many states. Mable never attended school, but my mother and Ethel taught her. She could read, write and do simple arithmetic. She was a blessing to everyone who met her. She met Bill Ingram at Church who was about 20 years older than her. His wife had died of cancer. He started visiting her at home and they became very close friends. He took her many places in his car. They visited Clyde and Ollie Day often (in Dallas--I think.) Clyde and Ollie had a sail boat and they went out on it with them fairly often. They spent week-ends with them also and went on vacation with them once. Bill and Mable went together 15 or 20 years until Bill's death which was about two years before she died. Ollie Day was Aunt Minnie Day's daughter and Clyde Day was Ollie's first cousin.

My mother Gladys Marie was born March 15, 1916 and died June 27, 1967 (51 years old). She was 3 years old when her father died. Grandma said she was always a good kid and took care of herself. She taught herself to sew at 11 yr. because she had to work over Ethel's clothes to wear. Mother married my Dad, John Herman Vincent on August 19, 1933. She had a miscarriage and then me on December 28, 1934. She had twins, Gladys Faye and Johnny Ray, when I was 6, but they died at birth. Mom and Dad always wanted 5 children, but I was all they ended up with. Mother was a great mom, wife and homemaker. She became a beauty operator when I was in the 8th grade. Everyone loved my mother because she was always doing things for other people, plus a fantastic cook. Her early death at 51 years was very hard on me, because she was my best friend.

Grandma Addie Crowsey Russom was born November 7, 1886 and died May 25, 1971. Grandma was a good christian, a saint, in my opinion. She spent her life taking care of my invalid aunt Mable. She lived in an old drafty house, had nothing material to make her happy, seldom went anywhere and, yet, she was the most happy person I have ever known. I never heard her complain. She taught me many good principles and I was very close to her. She had a laundry room in the back and did laundry for the public. She started her own business after Mable had smallpox and had to be moved from the hospital by my Dad. Grandma had a wood stove in the laundry room for heat and she also cooked on it. Her food was wonderful and I loved the atmosphere. I visited Grandma and Mable (Beba - I nicknamed her that as a small child) a lot. Grandma always brought me a tray of food in Mable's room and wanted me to eat with her to keep her company. Grandma ate in the cold kitchen. Grandma had a large garden and canned food. She churned butter on the halves for people. Several family members in Whitesboro and Gainesville would kill a hog or cow and let grandma clean them, etc. on the halves to help her out. Grandma never asked for help from anyone, but people loved to help her and Mable out. She told me she was from Arkansas. Of course, her father, Henry Crowsey, was from Germany or Prussia.

I am tired and must go to bed. I am a night owl on the week-end.

Please forward this information to Jeri Lynn since I do not have her e-mail address. I just reply to her messages. Send me her e-mail address, please. Thanks!
